A serious problem—more than six feet five inches tall and still growing, Private First Class Richard N. Burnett is confronted with the problem of being too long for his bunk and wonders just what, if anything, can be done about it. The property sergeant is stumped and so is everyone else including Burnett. He still hopes for suggestions solving his predicament other than those received thus far which include cutting two inches off his height. —Official USMC Photo.

BRADLEY MANOR ANNEXATION VOTE RULED ILLEGAL BY JUDGE AVILLA

In what proved to be a surprise decision this week, Superior Court Judge Leonard R. Avilla ruled in favor of opponents to the Bradley Manor annexation proceedings, when he found that the annexation election of February 23 was called illegally and that its results are null and void unless the city of San Jose can show substantial proof that the election was legal.

Marines Build Men; R. M. Burnett Is The Proof

Camp Pendleton, Oceanside, California — Marine Private First Class Richard M. Burnett, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. William M. Burnett, of 385 E. Campbell Avenue, Campbell, has presented serious problems to the quartermaster because he has grown more than two inches in less than two years.

In addition to having to requisition specially made clothing, matters are further complicated for Burnett, by the fact that he has outgrown his bunk, an acute problem on cold mornings.

"No remedies offered to date from the property sergeant or anyone else has solved the problem," he said, although he is still hopeful that someone will come up with a suggestion other than cutting two inches off his neck.

Born in Watsonville, he enlisted in the Marine Corps in San Francisco, April 12, 1948, and received his boot training at the Marine Corps Recruit Depot, San Diego. Pfc. Burnett is a living example of what Marine Corps food and training will do for a man. When he enlisted he was a trifling five feet three inches, one inch under the maximum height allowed for enlistment and has since added two inches to his towering 200-pound frame.

Well Cleaning Job Underway

Removal of clay deposits from gravel strata in Well No. 1A, First and Everett Streets, was begun late Monday by the Campbell Water Company.

Ralph Hyde, vice-president of the water company, explained that this is a normal operation to maintain a well after it has been in use for a couple of years. Clay collects in the gravel strata, he said, and obstructs the flow of water into the well. Such deposits are removed by blowing air into the gravel cuts.

Well No. 1A was used only a couple of days last summer for irrigation purposes said Hyde. He added that it may be put into service this year unless the rainfall increases sufficiently to raise water tables supplying other wells operated by the local company.

The forced air cleaning operation should last about 10 days.

Overcrowded Conditions Increasing; School Sees Enrollment Growth To 2207 By 1957-58 Term Opening

Campbell Union High School board of trustees will place a proposal for a $950,000 bond issue before the district voters at a special election called Tuesday, May 16. Final details of the proposal will be prepared by the board at a meeting scheduled for Monday night.

Campbell is growing, and its population is made up largely of younger married couples and their families. This, and the factor that San Jose, too is growing industrially, and those who work there are settling in the Campbell area, are the main reasons for the bond issue, for its purpose is to eliminate serious conditions of overcrowding of existing high school facilities.

Names of the youths were turned over to the shop owner.

In addition, the patrol members chalked up 217 man hours on duty during March, and covered 1098 miles in the patrol car. Superior Court Judge Byrl Salsman Guest Speaker For Rotary Luncheon

Superior Court Judge Byrl R. Salsman told of the operation of the Superior court and of the state judicial system in an address given before the Campbell Rotary Club at its regular Monday noon meeting in the Campbell IOOF Hall.

Introduced by Attorney Norman R. Stoner, chairman of the day, Judge Salsman, former state senator, outlined the state judicial system, starting at the top with the state Supreme Court, the District Courts of Appeal, one for each of the four districts within the state; the superior courts, serving each county. Santa Clara county has five superior court judges, and the superior courts in each county are departmentalized. Next comes the judicial council, with one justice from each of the nine courts. These can transfer from one court to another.

The superior court, he said, handles important cases from felony on up; all damage suits over $1000, domestic matters, land title and equity cases, and jail commitments.

As presiding judge of the Santa Clara County Superior Court, Judge Salsman apportions the work among the various judges, handles probate of wills, guardianships and adoptions and sets the trial calendar.

Main problems of the court are the inebriacy cases, the mentally ill, drug addicts and the preponderance of auto accident claims. Salsman told Rotarians that an average of 10 persons per week are committed to Agnew State Mental Hospital. He praised the operation and the staff of the hospital, and said that most of those persons committed are cured and return to take their places in society.

Seven judges, at least, would be necessary to clear up the backlog of cases, mostly accident claim, which now total 1100, he added.

GUESTS
Guests at the meeting and their hosts were: John Duncan, guest of Dobie Jeffers; Dr. Robert Jasmine, guest of Frank Accardi, and John Sals, Campbell High School student, guest of his father, Mario Sala.

Outgoing president Forrest Reese presided at the meeting. Speaker for next Monday's session will be Campbell High School District Superintendent Laurence J. Hill. His topic will be "Campbell Schools of the Future."

New VFW Group Meets Tonight At Library Hall

The veterans' group now organizing the Veterans of Foreign Wars Post in Campbell will hold their next meeting on Friday night, April 7, in the Womn's Club hall, next to the library, at 8 o'clock.

Veterans who have signed up and others intending to attend, are asked to bring their honorable discharge or copy or other certification of eligibility, in order to facilitate paper work in filing application for charter. Dates of overseas service are necessary in filling out applications and this information will speed up matters for more time for a sociable evening.

District Deputy, north, Robert E. Murray will again be present to assist and to answer questions, especially in regard to the V.F.W. national legislative program for 1950. The VFW is seeking a strong veteran front to combat the cuts outlined in the Hoover report and oppose the plan for World Government as proposed by the United World Federalists. Many other objectives are on the 1950 program.

This meeting again will be open to all overseas veterans and their families, as plans to organize a women's auxiliary to the post are being formulated, and already the women bid to outdo the men in membership.

Deep Water Cables Increase Phone Service To Cuba

N. A. Kulish, district manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Company, announced this week that new deep water telephone cables, which will automatically boost voice waves as they speed along the ocean floor, are now being installed between Key West, Florida, and Havana, Cuba, by the Long Lines department of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. The project is expected to provide additional and urgently needed telephone high-ways between this country and Cuba.

The new submarine voiceways are the result of a long term Bell Telephone Laboratories research program. Key element is a new under water repeater using especially constructed vacuum tubes which are expected to keep the repeaters functioning unattended for a long period.

Helen G. Douglas Gives Campaign Talk In Campbell

Congresswoman Helen Gahagan Douglas, candidate for the U. S. Senate, spoke here Thursday before a packed audience in the Country Woman's clubrooms.

Stating that she comes from a long line of Republicans, she said she switched to the Democratic party in the '30's, believing it to be the sole answer to the depression.

A strong believer in the free-enterprise system, she said it must be preserved by fighting the monopolies and public utilities which oppose development of natural resources. Cheap power and adequate water are the key to the growth of industry and maintenance of full employment in California.

Mrs. Douglas called Senator McCarthy an aid to Stalin, stating that his unsubstantiated attack on the State Department officials has lowered prestige of this country abroad and added fuel to Russia's

WHO'S Crippled?

SUCCESS STORY OF THE MONTH

It took Bernice Smith of Enterprise, Ore., nearly 20 years to qualify for her first salaried job, and the process included not only education, but repeated surgery and hospitalization in order to overcome a crippling handicap.

Her painful battle was undertaken in opposition to the advice of family and friends and at times she appeared doomed to defeat, but as she herself puts it: "It hasn't been easy but I love it. And to think that in a few months I may be doing some interesting, worthwhile work—to imagine doing what I had given up all hopes of ever doing!"

Because Bernice Smith has overcome odds that to another might have seemed insuperable, the National Society for Crippled Children and Adults has presented her its "Who's Crippled?" citation. The ceremony conferring the citation was held by the Oregon Society for Crippled Children and Adults in Portland.

In addition to this honor, Miss Smith has been named "Citizen of the Week" by her native state of Oregon and by the city of Portland where she has made her home for the past year while taking her final business school training.

Miss Smith's first job is as assisting secretary-stenographer for the Oregon Society during the 1950 Easter Seal campaign, a job which enables her to help others crippled as she herself has been.

First afflicted with rheumatoid arthritis when she was 15, Miss Smith was completely immobilized within three months. Three years later, she underwent her first surgery and was able to return to her high school studies in her home town of Enterprise for the next three years.

Again at the age of 21 her ailment became progressively worse until she was confined entirely to a wheel chair and became a helpless cripple for the next 19 years.

In the fall of 1947, the executive director for the Oregon Society for Crippled Children interested himself in her case and learned that through surgery, Miss Smith's condition could be considerably helped. In spite of the advice of relatives and friends to avoid this treatment, she entered the Emanuel Hospital in Portland and underwent orthopedic surgery which was made possible by the financial assistance of the Oregon Society. Additional surgery was performed in January, 1948, and a long period of treatment ensued during which it was made possible for Miss Smith to get about on crutches.

Fractures of several bones made two subsequent periods of hospitalization necessary, but on Nov. 15, 1948, she was able to begin a course in business administration and stenography in Portland.

Today, at 43, a newcomer in the business world, Miss Smith says in spite of the fact she may need still more surgery to improve her condition, "The future is like a many-sided castle with myriad doors to be opened. That's how it feels to be walking again."

Custom-made lightning to test western-made Westinghouse power transformers is produced in this big 2,400,000-volt surge or "impulse" generator, latest addition to electrical transformer testing equipment to be installed at the Sunnyvale, Calif., works of the Westinghouse Electric Corporation. The generator is said to be the only one of its type and power in a western industrial plant, and one of the most powerful in the world. Note size of man at right.

Multi-million volt "lightning" stroke vaporizes thin copper wire in the shape of a huge "W" as the Westinghouse Electric Corporation demonstrates its new power transformer test equipment at Sunnyvale, Calif. Capable of hurling an electrical surge of 2,400,000 volts into transformers on test, if necessary, the new "impulse" generator seen in this photo completes a Westinghouse transformer test section comprising $250,000 worth of such equipment.

Dale Carnegie

"HOW TO WIN FRIENDS and INFLUENCE PEOPLE"
TODAY'S PIECE is for parents who are concerned with what their children may have inherited. If you are one of them, the first thing for you to do is to stop worrying. Your child has many people to inherit from, so the chances are slim of his inheriting a weakness so great from any one of them that cannot be offset by what he inherits from all the others combined.

D. Carnegie

Donald A. Laird has an interesting article in Your Life Magazine which I have condensed for this space, as follows:

Many people have insanity somewhere in the family, but fortunately only a fraction of mental disorders are definitely inherited. Even an insane father or mother should not deter one from marriage. Famous people have had one insane parent: author Hans Christian Andersen, philosopher Sir Francis Bacon, author Nathaniel Hawthorne, astronomer Johannes Kepler, artist J. M.W. Turner, to mention only a few.

An occasional feeble-minded child is born in families that have the best of heredity—Charles Darwin and William Shakespeare each had a feeble-minded child. Feeble-mindedness crops out in unexpected places, partly because it is a recessive hereditary factor and may lie dormant through several generations. It also crops out sometimes because of brain injuries at birth, or because of the mother's illness before the child's birth.

Blood has nothing to do with heredity. I'd as soon have a transfusion from a lunatic as from a university president or a congressman.

Blood tests tell nothing about heredity; they merely tell about venereal disease.

There is very little blending of characteristics of mother and father. Hereditary qualities usually appear full strength, not diluted.

Years may change the man, but the heredity remains unchanged. Ninety year old men have become fathers of healthy babies, and the children received the same heredity as if their father had been a whippersnapper of a youth.

Heredity plays a role in some diseases. If both a father and a mother have diabetes, medical examinations should be held annually on the child. But tuberculosis and cancer have little to do with heredity.

Campbell Softball Loops To Begin Play May 15

Campbell's softball field, which was given lights last year through the outstanding efforts of the Business and Professional Women's Club, is rapidly being made ready for the season opener, scheduled for May 15.

Competition is scheduled for a fast league of "A" teams, slower league of "B" teams, and a junior loop for youth teams of the area. A number of outstanding teams from this area have signed to play with the Campbell leagues, and a limited number of additional teams can be accommodated.

The Campbell league already has obtained very able umpires for the league play, and all facilities are being made ready for the season opener.

Team managers or other interested persons who desire to enter the local loops should contact the local association at 111 North Third Street or phone Tony Bakhich, Campbell 2894, after 5 p.m. daily, or contact Neal Royer at Campbell 3441 or 2520.

Crippled Children Society President Issues Appeal

With the end of the campaign in sight and the quota not yet reached, Robert Seeley, president of the Santa Clara County Crippled Children's Society, has issued a final plea for support in the society's drive for funds with which to carry on its work for the ensuing year.

"While no definite goal has been set," Mr. Seeley said, "We do hope to reach $25,000 by Easter through the sale of Easter Seals. This amount is more than we obtained last year but this year the need is greater. It is our ambition to be able to set up a Sheltered Workshop for the severely handicapped young adult. This will require about $7000 extra."

The summer camp program and the local Chandler Tripp School, are the other major projects of the society, Seeley stated, both of which are supported by the sale of Easter Seals. "We urge everyone to send in their dollar for the seals that were mailed to them early in the campaign," Seeley said, "and if each could do that we would have no difficulty in reaching our goal."

Spring Flowers, Mission Garden Provide Attractive Setting For Club's 'Angelus' Musical And Tea

Two large gilded bells, each five feet in diameter, and the organ rendition of "The Angelus," by Massenet, set the scene for the annual spring musicale and tea of the Campbell Women's Service Club, Wednesday at the Methodist Church. Three hundred guests, smart in their Easter season attire, attended the tea and program which featured musical artists Lucretia Evans

Grow, mezzo-soprano, and Leslie Grow, organist, both of Burlingame.

The mission garden setting, with picket fence in the foreground, and generous arrangements of colorful spring blooms provided a charming scene for the affair, which was planned by Mrs. Earl C. Buck, general chairman, and her committees for the day.

Mrs. Grow's selections included the aria, "My Heart Ever Faithful," from the Pentecost Cantata by Bach; "Jerusalem, Thou That Killest the Prophets" from "St. Paul," by Mendelssohn; "Ave Maria," Schubert; "Hear Ye, Israel," from Mendelssohn's "Elijah"; "O Thou Billowy Harvest Field," Rachmaninoff; "Under the Greenwood Tree," Arne; "Calm as the Night," Bohm, and "Elsa's Dream" from Lohengrin by Wagner.

Organ selections by Mr. Grow were: "Water Music," suite, Handel, allegro vivace, air and allegretto giocoso; "Air" from the Suite in D, Bach; Fugue a la Gigue, Bach; "Ronde Française," Boellmann; "Angelus," Massenet; First Organ "Sonata," Borowski, andante, allegro con fuoco.

Mrs. Norman Pratt was the program chairman, assisted by Mrs. R. G. Greenbrook, Mrs. Franklin Blaine and Mrs. Dean Chamberlin.

Food committee chairman Mrs. Dan Gould was assisted by Miss Muriel Carson, Mrs. Merlin Bohnett, Mrs. Charles Hancock, Mrs. L. E. Means, Mrs. Frank Richardson, Mrs. Richard Gordon, Mrs. Harold Drummond and Miss Ruby Howes.

Mrs. C. A. Short was chairman of the decorations committee. Those working with her were Mrs. G. E. Farley, Mrs. I. R. Abbott, Mrs. Raymond Fish, Mrs. Herbert Binley, Mrs. W. L. Powell and Miss Ruby Howes.

Mrs. R. Golden was chairman of the serving committee, assisted by Mrs. Milton Robertson, Mrs. Clarence Helmbold and Mrs. Everett Nelson were in charge of tickets and reservations.

Mrs. C. L. Ackerman was chairman of the tables decorations group, assisted by Mesdames William N. Lloyd, L. J. Hill, L. Ben Howard, William Enoch, William Runge, J. M. Dahl and Miss Winnie Grizzle.

Publicity chairman Mrs. Earl Clark was assisted by Mrs. Ward Edsinger, Mrs. E. R. Kennedy had charge of the sweet trays; Mrs. Herman Rice and her committee of Mrs. Earl Buck and Mrs. R. J. Flagg, had the cleanup division.

Mrs. Angelo Takes Office As Head Of Evening Guild

St. Lucy's Evening Guild installed new officers at its recent business meeting at the home of Mrs. Ann Dardanelli.

Mrs. Olive Parysek, outgoing president, handed the gavel to the new president, Mrs. Evelyn Angelo. Each was presented with a corsage of violets.

Mrs. Parysek was presented with a gold pin in recognition of her service during the past year. Installation was directed by Mrs. Dardanelli. Each of the officers received an envelope containing an outline of her duties.

During the meeting, members made plans for the fourth anniversary celebration which was held at Lou's Village March 23. Mrs. Mary Spadafora gave a camellia corsage to each member attending the anniversary event.

Passes Test For Carrier Service

Ensign Corwin A. Olds, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Corwin H. Olds, has qualified in aircraft carrier operations by taking off and landing his SNJ "Texas" trainer six successive times aboard the U.S.S. Caboto, now cruising in the Gulf of Mexico.

Ensign Olds was graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy in 1947 and served for two years aboard the carrier, U.S.S. Siboney. He attended the Naval School of Justice at Port Hueneme and the anti-submarine warfare school at Key West, Florida.

Religion Under Hitler Described For Kiwanians

An Easter message was brought to the Campbell Kiwanis Club on Tuesday by Reverend Richard F. W. Ruf, pastor of the Calvary Temple Church of San Jose. He spoke feelingly of the difference between worship in this country and that of Nazi Germany under Hitler.

Rev. Ruf was a fugitive from the Nazi regime and spoke from experience. Freedom of speech was non-existent during the Hitler days. All people had to Hell! Hitler! and conform with the one and only party policy.

Visitors at the meeting were Frank Blakeley, Floyd Onyett, Remley Weeks and Herb Erickson from San Jose, and William Capener and Thomas Carey from Los Gatos.

The church committee, headed by Ira Grim, calls attention to the Moravian Easter Sunrise Service which will be broadcast this year from Winston-Salem, North Carolina. This is the 178th consecutive year of the program. Many Kiwanians of that town will be taking part.

Next week the club will have as speaker, Lt. Gov. of Kiwanis, this district, Verne Owens. In addition there will be a choir group from the local high school who will perform.

Ladies night will be held on April 18.

Easter Services Are Announced

Easter services at the Congregational church of Campbell will be at the same time as on other Sundays, with both the church service and the Sunday School being held simultaneously at 10:30 a.m.

Special music and decorations will characterize the church service, with the choir singing "Easter Morning" by Evans, and "O Morn of Beauty," by Sibellus. The choir is under the direction of Mrs. Ray Martin.

The theme of the sermon by Rev. Corwin H. Olds will be, "The Eternal Drama."

The junior and intermediate divisions of the church school will meet in general assembly and will view a missionary motion picture entitled "The Story of Bamba," and "The Story of Easter," illustrated with colored slides.

The Pilgrim Fellowship and Junior Pilgrim Fellowship will hold their regular meetings at 6:30 p.m.

Evening Guild

St. Lucy's Evening Guild will meet Thursday, April 13 at the home of Mrs. Alice Freitas, 260 Williams Road. Hostesses will be Mrs. Freitas and Mrs. Alice Eggers.

Jack Halstead Enters Race For Assembly Post

With his major aim to help solve this valley's water problems, John H. "Jack" Halstead, San Jose hydraulic lift manufacturer, announced his candidacy for the 29th state assembly post on the Republican and Democratic tickets.

"As a small business man who has served farmers and small industries of this valley for many years, I believe I can be of service in representing southern Santa Clara county and its problems in the state legislature," Halstead said.

"I know intimately how pressing the water problem of this valley is," he added, "and I think that with at least five plans being proposed to bring in more water it is high time an effort is made to develop a master plan and see that all effort is then centered to making it a reality. The entire future of our valley is dependent on water and time for action can no longer be delayed."

Halstead, who is president of the Western Manufacturing Company of San Jose, has resided in this valley for 37 years. His father was in the well drilling business here for a number of years. Halstead was educated at St. Joseph's high school, the University of Santa Clara and the University of California, where he studied chemical engineering and business administration.

Easter Anthems To Be Sung At Methodist Church

Easter morning worship at the Campbell Methodist Church will be conducted at 11 o'clock by the pastor, Lawrence J. Osborne. Two Easter anthems will be sung by the church choir, "Alleluia! Christ Is Risen" by Kopolyoff, and "Christ the Lord Is Risen Today" by Thimian.

The sermon will be on the subject, "Eternal Life." Throughout the service the emphasis will be on the joy and praise of Easter Day. The floral decorations will be arranged by Mrs. J. M. Dahl and Mrs. N. A. Cowdery.

Margie Martin Dies At 62

Mrs. Margie Martin, 62, wife of Frank Martin of Campbell, died April 1. She was the mother of W. H. Martin of Mountain View and H. L. Martin of San Luis Obispo. She leaves five grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Mrs. Martin was a native of Mississippi. Funeral services were conducted Monday at 2 p.m. in Mountain View. Interment was at Alta Mesa Cemetery.

Explorer Scouts In Work Party At Stuart Camp

Explorers from five units of the Santa Clara County Council, Boy Scouts of America, have been busily engaged at the Stuart overnight camp this week doing some much-needed camp improvement.

The boys, under the leadership of Field Executive Ken Robison, reported in camp Monday noon and laid out plans for the work party. The explorers closed camp Thursday afternoon. Projects included clearing of trails, developing the spring and piping water to the out-post camp, clearing land for additional campsites and further developing the Indian Village. The Easter Week Explorer party is an established council tradition, according to Executive C. D. Bartlett.

Explorers taking part in the work camp were: Roger Ensminger, Grant Conrod and Bob Blue of Explorer Post 34, Cambrian; Clyde Kesner of Troop 47, Union District; Jerry Scott and Pete Martinez of Troop 4, Burbank; Don Dawson and Wayne Burgess of Troop 82, Sunnyvale, and Dave Harrison of Troop 62, Gilroy.

Christian Science Lesson-Sermon

"Are Sin, Disease, and Death Real?" This question will be the subject of the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon this Sunday, April 9, with the Golden Text taken from Proverbs: "In the way of righteousness is life; and in the pathway thereof there is no death" (12:28).

The sermon will be comprised of citations from the Bible and from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including the following:

Jeremiah: "For thus saith the Lord, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are thrown down by the mountains, and by the sword; Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them, and will reveal unto them the abundance of peace and truth" (33:4, 6).
Science and Health: "As for sin and disease, Christian Science says, in the language of the Master, 'Follow me; and let the dead bury their dead.' Let discord of every name and nature be heard no more, and let the harmonious and true sense of Life and being take possession of human consciousness" (p. 355).

Lowell Thomas Jr. To Show Color Film On Tibet

An all-color motion picture lecture, by Lowell Thomas Jr., will be presented at Roosevelt Junior High Auditorium, San Jose, Saturday, April 15, at 8:30 p.m.

Although Lowell Thomas Jr., is only 26, he is already a veteran of some six expeditions. He was a pilot in the recent war, and was with the Air Force at Bikini for the atom bomb tests. And he has made a host of friends through his many radio broadcasts—including the first broadcasts ever made from Lhasa. One of his broadcasts from Tibet, describing his father's near fatal accident, is regarded as a radio classic.

"Inside Forbidden Tibet" is the story of the Lowell Thomases' trek through this elusive goal of adventurers and explorers, the never-never land of Tibet and into the mysterious land of the Dalai Lama. It is the story of high adventure among the lofty Himalayas far up in Central Asia. The film will show the monasteries covered with gold, visit the throne room of the Dalai Lama, a young brown-skinned boy who sits on his throne in the position of Buddha, accepting gifts and flicking a little whisk at the people as they pass, blessing each one.

Tickets for this amazing picture lecture, narrated personally by Lowell Thomas Jr., may be secured at Denny-Watrous box office, Civic auditorium, San Jose, CY 3-6252.

DUO-PIANISTS' CONCERT TREAT OF CULTURE; 'EDUCATIONAL DIRECTION'

By PETER CALL

When concert artists leave a happy memory with every member of a house capacity audience with its diversified tastes in music, that might indicate a rare sagacity on the part of the performers in the matter of program building. When such same artists command ecstatic applause for such hackneyed fare as the De Falla "Fire Dance," and Liszt's "Hungarian Rhapsody No. 2" offered as inevitable encores, that might suggest an exceptional shrewdness in showmanship, but when Ethel Bartlett and Rae Robertson win the same enthusiastic response for their Handel, Bach, Mendelssohn and Brahms, some of it not at all familiar except to the educated musician, that definitely labels Bartlett and Robertson as consummate artists.

The event was the final concert for the season of the Los Gatos Community Concert Association. It was a crowning glory to a series of exceptional cultural entertainment. For piano students or other young musicians with the dreams of professional careers it must have been especially inspiring.

Miss Bartlett and Mr. Robertson, looking well fed, wholesome and energetic are devoid of even the ponderous mannerisms which characterize so many piano concertizers. They take them in hand and make them serve for their musicianship. Regarded for technique they might be said to be precisionists, but their technique is but the means for making their pianos purr, sing, chant and rumble. In the audience the emotionally pained are waffled on waves of feeling. The musical intellectual listens somewhat abjectly to the superb timing, the perfect blending and the personal sensitivity of the artists separately, yet always together. Ethel Bartlett and Rae Robertson are noted in the professional world for their happy marriage in their private lives. They are as happily wed in their musicianship and art.

NEW SEASON

So, this season's concerts were concluded. Taking advantage of an intermission in the last concert, Dr. Gustave Fassin, president of the Community Concert Association, urged the subscribers who support this fine community enterprise to send in their subscriptions early for next season's series. A campaign will be started May 8. For one week. Past subscribers are begged to run no risk of having no seats for a new season of great promise.

same, with the necessary vouchers, to the said executrix, c/o Bohnett, Hill, Cottrell & Bohnett, 1114 Bank of America Bldg., in the City of San Jose 16, County of Santa Clara, State of California, which said last named office is hereby specified by the undersigned as the place of business in all matters connected with said estate.

Letters to the Editor

Mr. Eugene Barnes, Editor,
The Campbell Press,
Campbell

Dear Mr. Barnes:

Everyone is talking about flying saucers, the hydrogen bomb, and germ warfare. But why worry about such futuristic conditions? Campbell High is pretty overcrowded; we need more buildings and equipment for tripled enrollment expected in the next eight years. Although Campbell is very modern in many things — classrooms, desks, books and grounds — you must realize that to continue to be up-to-date, it must expand. Men from Mars are not invading this area, but over a hundred ordinary human families are, each month.

Among the things needed most are larger classrooms for sewing, larger library and study hall, and a girls' gymnasium. Then too, we students are eager for more lockers and a swimming pool. A swimming pool can be of great value to a community by providing recreation for children and adults and helping persons to become more skilled in swimming, a valuable thing to know.

May 16 is the day!! No, we are not going to have a hydrogen bomb dropped on us. More important, that is the date the bond issue will be voted upon. As down-to-earth human beings, I am sure you will cooperate by giving Campbell High School the benefit of your votes.

Sincerely yours,
Gwen Elaine Robertson

Mr. Eugene Barnes,
Campbell Press
Campbell

Dear Mr. Barnes,

I know that most of your readers are planning to vote in the coming School Bond election, but I should like to acquaint them with a few all-important facts concerning the election.

In the School Bond election to be held May 16, the residents of Campbell Union High School district will have an opportunity to vote for the expansion of high school facilities. Because of the bumper crop of babies that were born during the war, the present high school enrollments will jump from almost 1000 to practically 3000 in 1957.

Some of the facilities that will be provided by the proposed bonds will be classrooms for 500 students a music building, a swimming pool which, of course, would probably be used by "Campbellites" during the summer, a cafeteria and laundry, girls' gymnasium and expanded study hall and library facilities.

The above-mentioned improvements to our present high school will cost $950,000. A lot of money, you say? It probably is, but the assessed valuation makes the cost to the average home owner approximately $8.00 a year or 25 cents on the $100.00.

Think of it, parents of growing children. Would you want your child attending a cramped, crowded school? Or would you have him attend a school like the one our proposed bond issue plans?

Sincerely yours,
Glenelle Walton.

WE SALUTE

OUR FLORISTS!

Flowers, they say, have a message all their own. If you would understand what they are saying, visit your favorite florist today. He is a man who lives with plants and blossoms. As tenderly as a mother cuddles her child, he nurtures wondrous seeds and slips and brings forth their exquisite beauty. Wintertime and Summer, he works long, patient hours. His green thumb potters in the good earth, his modern hothouse is his fragrance laboratory. Dahlias, daisies and daffodils love his tender touch and respond as if to please him. He is a scientist, a specialist, a man whose products can carry any message. We salute his ingenuity and say, "Bouquets to you, Mr. Florist!"

POPULAR RECORDS: Television started the trend toward the return of old time vaudeville and now the record industry has fallen into line. WHY DO THEY ALWAYS SAY NO? and THE PIANO ROLL BLUES (Coral 60177) by Cliff Stewart and the San Francisco Boys is a spontaneous, rollicking throwback to yesteryear.

Another tune with a flavor of the past is DEARIE (Columbia 38718) sung by Marjorie Hughes. She sings this catty ditty with a tongue-in-the-cheek manner and in schottische tempo.

Many types of unusual rhythms have been tried lately in the various popular tunes and now we have a calypso by Tony Martin and Fran Warren—THAT WE IS ME AND YOU (Victor 20-3720). Tony and Fran sing the light-hearted lyrics in a relaxed manner plus a mellow lilt.

The interest in Dixieland jazz continues unabated and one of the best examples I have heard in a long time is THAT'S A PLENTY (Columbia 38710) by Jimmy Dorsey and his Original "Dorseyland" Jazz Band. The drive is enormous, this is a fresh live jazz performance that will leave you breathless.

Another excellent Dixieland affair is COPENHAGEN (London 604). The versatile Teresa Brewer appears in a different guise and is backed by the able Dixieland All Stars. Miss Brewer has an excellent knowledge of jazz phrasing and puts plenty of bite into her singing. This is the gal whose etching of Music! Music! Music! is now riding so high.

RONNIE MUNRO PLAYS CHOPIN WALTZES (London LPB 149) is excellent music for relaxed listening. Here are rich instrumental arrangements of eight of the most popular of Chopin Waltzes. Munro makes Chopin sound a little like Strauss as he plays these waltzes with a definite Viennese swing.

CHILDREN'S RECORDS: Good songs for children are rather scarce so a two record package called ANIMAL FAIR (Columbia MJV-59) is welcome indeed. Burl Ives sings these clever songs with clear diction and in his own inimitable style. The sand-pile set will enjoy these without a doubt.

CLASSICAL RECORDS: One of the controversial aspects of the Long-Playing discs has been in the choice of two selections to put back to back on one record. The first release of the RCA Victor LP discs shows excellent intelligence in this matter of coupling. In all instances the selections we find joined on one record have a definite affinity to each other.

The TCHAIKOVSKY: ROMEO & JULIET and the BERLIOZ: ROMEO AND JULIET (Victor LM-1019) make a very companionable pair. Arturo Toscanini conducts the NBC Symphony Orchestra in both selections.

The Romeo & Juliet Overture-Fantasia of Tchaikovsky is one of his most charming compositions and also one of his earliest works. All the passion and tenderness of his own young heart are in this expressive music of love and death. This is beautiful music, unrivaled for lovely melody and exquisite coloring. Melody and color, these were Tchaikovsky's great gifts.

Three scenes from the second part of Berlioz: Romeo & Juliet Dramatic Symphony; Romeo Alone—Fete at the Capulets—Love Scene; comprise the second side of the record. Berlioz's own words express the character of his music far better than I can. He said: "The dominant qualities of my music are passionate expression, intense feeling, rhythmic animation, and unexpected changes."

Since the advent of the Long-Playing disc the smaller record companies have been turning out a vast treasure house of heretofore unavailable music. One of these choice treasures is HIGHLIGHTS FROM THE OPERA "LA GIOCONDA" by Ponchielli (Cetra-Soria 50,020). La Gioconda is full of melodic warmth and dramatic impact. The excerpts include all the best known numbers from the opera and are sung by a fine cast—Cigna, soprano; Cloe Elmo, mezzo-soprano; Ebe Stignani, mezzo-soprano; Giacinto Prandelli, tenor; and Antenore Reali, baritone.

The glittering theatrical vehicle KHATCHATURIAN: CONCERTO FOR PIANO AND ORCHESTRA appears almost simultaneously on Long-Playing discs by both Victor and Columbia. The Victor version, William Kapel, pianist and the Odd Fellows Established 131 Years; Lodges Throughout World Carry On Program Of Service And Friendship

Odd Fellows, members of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, will observe the one hundred and thirty-first anniversary of the establishment of their organization in this country, on April 26.

Thomas Wilder, who had been an Odd Fellow in England, came to this country in 1817 and, after several attempts, established Washington Lodge No. 1 in Baltimore, Maryland, on April 26, 1819, and was elected its first noble grand. Since then the growth of the order in this country has been phenomenal. Few towns of any size in North America are without their Odd Fellow lodges.

While the majority of the membership in the Odd Fellows is in the United States and Canada, there are lodges throughout the world. Grand lodges and quasi-independent grand lodges are to be found in Australia, New Zealand, Norway, Sweden, Denmark, The Netherlands and Cuba. Those in Germany, Czechoslovakia, Poland and Finland were destroyed by the war. Other lodges were and are in the Philippine Islands, Japan, Mexico, China, Hawaii, South American countries and Panama.

The Order of Odd Fellows has become an organization with an annual income of over $27,000,000, which is used for the purpose of paying the maintenance expenses, relieving distress and maintaining 65 homes for aged, indigents, and orphans into its membership; for general relief outside the order, and to create a reserve for use in time of world wide emergency.

Its four commands are "Visit the Sick, Relieve the Distressed, Bury the Dead, and Educate the Orphan." The order holds to no creed but all who become members must believe in the existence of a supreme being, the creator and preserver of the universe. Religious discussion and political disputes are banned from the lodges. Every virtue is recommended, and every vice denounced.

According to a brief history of Boston Symphony Orchestra with Serge Koussevitzky, conductor (LM-1006) has been around for some time on the other two speeds. The Columbia version (ML 4288) with Oscar Levant, pianist and the Philharmonic-Symphony Orchestra of New York, Dimitri Mitropoulos conductor, is new. This is undoubtedly Levant's best performance of a longer work that I have heard to date.

Holds Potluck

Home Economics committee of the Santa Clara County Pomona Grange met at the American Legion hall in East Palo Alto on Monday, March 27, with Chairman Florence Sheffer presiding. The meeting started with a potluck dinner at 12:30.

Approximately 80 members were present. A talk on mental illness by Mrs. Edna Gerch of the Dibble General Hospital staff was a feature of the program. Mrs. Gerch mentioned especially that many cases of mental disorders were the direct result of World Wars I and II.

Lula Bell King, chairman of the Golden Rule committee, reported on the county hospital and asked that each Home Economics club in the county make five or more rag dolls or stuffed animals to cheer the little patients in the hospital, and also that each club sponsor at least one elderly man and one woman patient to furnish them with little things that will make their lives a little brighter.

Plans were discussed for a dinner to be given in the future and a committee was appointed to work out the details, the committee being composed of Effie Spencer, chairman; Leona Keesling, Mary Breeding and Lucille Paroline.

Mrs. Breeding reported for the Cupertino club that it will have a chicken dinner on April 28 at 6:30 p.m. at the Cupertino Odd Fellows hall. Tickets are now available from members of the Cupertino Grange. Effie Spencer reported for the Almaden club, and announced that the Almaden Grange will have a ham dinner on April 15 at the Almaden Union school, just south of Robertsville. Tickets for this affair are on sale by Almaden Grange members.

Mae Walsh announced that a pig will be given away by Orchard City Grange on June 27 at its regular meeting and that tickets for this affair are available from members of Orchard City Grange.

At the next meeting, which will be held in the Campbell Odd Fellows hall on Tuesday, April 25, a floral display in honor of National Flora Mrs. George Schlemmer and State H. E. chairman Mrs. Mabel Glenn will be the main feature.

THIS year plan to take more pictures for there is nothing like a picture to record a precious moment.
